

LOYALIST COLLEGE

International Refund Checklist

Students who have been admitted to Loyalist College and who have received a Study Permit are expected to register and attend classes in the program to which they were admitted and complete the semester for which they have paid tuition.

However, the College recognizes that there are some unforeseen circumstances in which a student may be allowed to withdraw and leave Loyalist College and receive a refund of their tuition fees. International students who withdraw give up their admission and status as students at Loyalist College. Information about students who withdraw will be reported to Citizenship and Immigration Canada. A student who withdraws and who later wishes to return to Loyalist College must re-apply for admission.

Withdrawal and Refund Process:

When possible, students should request a deferral to the next available intake.

Refunds must be initiated by Day 10 of the semester as indicated on the Academic Schedule.

No exceptions will be made for students who register or apply late.

Fees must be refunded to the home country and cannot be refunded to other post-secondary institutions or directly to the student.

Students are responsible for notifying Canada Immigration of any DLI change.

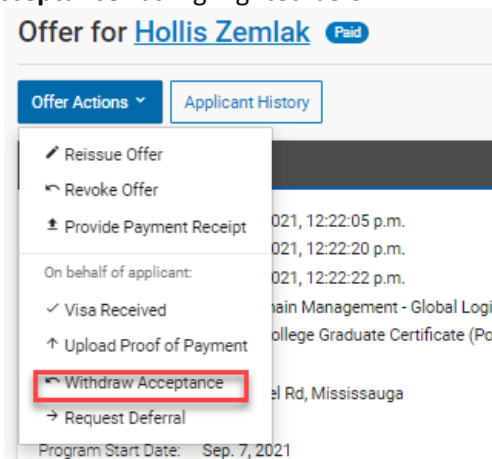

Refunds take approximately six weeks from date of processing at the College for funds to arrive as requested. Funds may take longer depending on the activity at the College or depending on the country to which funds are returned.
