

APPENDIX B CITIZENSHIP CONFIRMATION CONSENT FORM

At Loyalist College, we hold a deep responsibility to the First Nations, Métis, and Inuit communities. One of our key commitments is ensuring that positions designated for Indigenous individuals are indeed filled by those who rightfully belong to these communities. This commitment upholds the integrity and trust we maintain with the communities we serve.

Verifying Indigeneity is an essential, albeit sensitive, process. We recognize that this can be a challenging and sometimes traumatic experience for both the applicants and the reviewing committee. However, this step is crucial in honoring our responsibilities and maintaining the authenticity of our programs and positions.

By verifying Indigeneity, we ensure that the opportunities and resources intended for Indigenous peoples are accessed by those who genuinely belong to these communities. This process helps to protect the rights and recognition of Indigenous individuals, ensuring that they receive the support and representation they deserve.

We approach this task with the utmost respect and care, understanding the cultural and personal significance it holds. Our goal is to create a fair and equitable environment where the identities and rights of Indigenous peoples are honored and preserved.

Loyalist College is seeking your consent to conduct further review and/or consultation, when required, with the involvement of an external party to review and provide an assessment and recommendation to the College with respect to your Indigenous citizenship.

I, _____ consent to collecting personal information from third party organizations/individuals by authorized members of the Loyalist College Community for the purpose of verifying my Indigeneity. I understand that this information will only be used for Indigeneity verification and will not be used or disclosed to individuals within or outside of the College for any other purpose.
