Parent's children details

A dependent child is the natural, adoptive, or non-adoptive child from a previous relationship, of the parent, who is:

- under 18 years of age and living with the parent (and their spouse, if applicable) for 50% or more of the applicant's study period; or
- 18 years of age or older, single; and
 - is enrolled in high school and taking at least 60% of a full course load and living with the parent (and their spouse, if applicable) for 50% or more of the applicant's study period; or
 - is a full-time college or university student and has been out of high school less than six years; or
 - has a disability and is wholly dependent on the parent.

To be wholly dependent, a child over the age of 18 must meet all of the following conditions:

- The child is single and lives with the parent;
- The child is, by reason of a mental or physical disability, dependent on others for their personal needs and care; and
- The child is claimed by the parent for tax purposes and Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) has accepted the child as being wholly dependent upon the parent for tax purposes.

805 How many dependent children (including you) do the parents who are completing this section have?

815 How many of those dependent children (including you) will be taking postsecondary studies in the 2024-25 academic year?

Section C: Consents, declarations and signature of parents

Collection and use of personal information

Your personal information, including your Social Insurance Number (SIN), provided in connection with the applicant's application and award of financial assistance, including previous applications and financial assistance received, will be collected and used by the Ministry of Colleges and Universities (ministry) to administer and finance the Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP) and by Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC) to administer and finance the Canada Student Financial Assistance Program (CSFA Program). The ministry and ESDC may use other parties for any of these activities. Under agreement with ESDC, the National Student Loans Service Centre (NSLSC) uses your personal information to administer OSAP and CSFA Program. Under agreement with the ministry, the applicant's postsecondary institution and, where authorized by the ministry, its agents who administer OSAP and its auditors, use your personal information to administer OSAP and CSFA Program.

Administration includes: determining eligibility for financial assistance; verifying this application, including verifying the amounts and types of any other form of provincial or federal government financial assistance; updating the applicant's OSAP profile; paying the applicant's financial assistance; verifying the applicant's financial assistance, any relief granted from any payment the applicant is required to make and any loan rehabilitation; determining whether to convert any of the applicant's grants into student loans; considering any applications for review of determinations relating to financial assistance, eligibility for relief from any payment or loan rehabilitation; auditing the applicant's file; assessing and collecting loans, overpayments, and repayments; enforcing the legislation set out below and the applicant's agreements with the ministry and ESDC; and monitoring and auditing the NSLSC and the applicant's postsecondary institution or its authorized agents to ensure that they are administering the programs appropriately. In addition, administration by the ministry and ESDC includes public reporting on postsecondary education and training, including the administration and financing of student assistance programs and accessibility to, and affordability of, postsecondary education; planning, delivering, evaluating or monitoring student assistance programs for quality and improvements in both content and delivery, including establishing and monitoring the minimum amount of student aid the applicant's postsecondary institution is required to provide under the Student Access Guarantee, if applicable; conducting risk management, error management, audit and quality assessment activities; conducting inspections or investigations; and conducting research related to postsecondary education and training, including all aspects of student assistance programs and accessibility to, and affordability of postsecondary education and training such as developing key performance indicators on the aggregated Ontario Student Loan default rates of the applicant's postsecondary institution or for the purpose of evaluating or developing programs. The ministry may also disclose your personal information to other ministries of the Ontario government for the purpose of conducting postsecondary education related research on behalf of the ministry. You may be contacted to participate in surveys related to postsecondary education and training. Financing includes: planning, arranging, or providing funding of the programs.

The ministry collects your personal information under the authority of the Ministry of Colleges and Universities Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. M. 19, as amended, O. Reg. 70/17 as amended, and O. Reg. 282/13 as amended; s.10.1 of the Financial Administration Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. F.12, as amended; the Canada Student Financial Assistance Act, S.C. 1994, c. 28, as amended and the Canada Student Financial Assistance Regulations, SOR/95-329, as amended; and s. 266.3(3) of the Education Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. E.2. If you have any questions about the collection or use of this information, contact the Director, Student Financial Assistance Branch, Ministry of Colleges and Universities, PO Box 4500, 189 Red River Road, 4th Floor, Thunder Bay, Ontario, P7B 6G9; 807- 343-7260.

Consent of parents to the indirect collection and disclosure of information from income tax returns (required)

I authorize the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) to provide to the ministry identifying and income and expense information about me ("the information") from its tax records. The information will be used solely for the purpose of determining the applicant's entitlement to, and collecting overpayments of, financial assistance under the Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP). The ministry will not disclose the information to any person or organization without my written consent, except to the applicant or where authorized by or where required by law. The ministry administers OSAP under the authority of the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. M.19, as amended, O. Reg. 70/17 as amended, and O. Reg. 282/13 as amended; s. 10.1 of the Financial Administration Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.F.12, as amended; the Canada Student Financial Assistance Act, S.C. 1994, c. 28, as amended and the Canada Student Financial Assistance Regulations, SOR/95-329, as amended and s. 266.3(3) of the Education Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. E.2. This consent applies to the 2023, 2024 and 2025 taxation years and to any subsequent taxation year for which assistance is requested and my information is required.
