

THE CAREER CENTRE STAFF

Lyndsay Kerik, CAAT Dipl. Employment and Career Advisor

A graduate of Loyalist College, Lyndsay graduated from the Television Broadcasting program in 2001. After six years working for an independent television production company producing shows for networks such as TSN and OLN, Lyndsay returned to Loyalist where she had begun her career in the employment field as a work-study student in The Career Centre in 1999.

Lyndsay joined Loyalist as a fulltime staff member in 2006 and has since initiated new ideas in the Centre including the Career Development Certificate Program. Lyndsay also teaches the Career Research and Placement course to 3rd year Architectural Technology students.

Lyndsay is currently working on the completion of her Bachelor of Professional Arts – Communications through Athabasca University.

Lyndsay is committed to assisting Loyalist students and alumni in finding meaningful employment that matches their interests, values and career goals.
